CREDENTIALS MUST BE VISIBLE AT ALL TIMES

All media with access to restricted areas will be required to produce a photo ID and all bags and equipment will be subject to inspection.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The NBA has continued its new guidelines regarding game day credentials and access for the 2025-26 season:

- A limited number of new Tier 1 credentials are available for qualifying media outlets, which will grant access to the locker room both pre- and post-game, as well as pre-game court access (this designation will be clearly marked on 2025-26 Pacers season or single-game credentials).
- As outlined by the NBA, to qualify for Tier 1 access, media outlets must have a standard editorial process/structure in place to govern credentialed reporters.
- Additionally, outlets for the Tier 1 designation will meet the following criteria:
  - o Media outlets must create original news content and/or
  - o Media outlets should regularly cover the team by either traveling consistently or attending most of the team's games and practices in the home market.

It is important to note that Pacers' gameday media availabilites will largely remain unchanged from the 2025-26 season (a key exception continuing that there will no longer be an option to join media availabilities via Zoom) and that the following access will be available to all credentialed media outlets:

- The home and visiting head coach, as well as two key players from each game, will be available following the game in designated areas accessible to all credentialed media members and outlets. The locker room would then be open to a limited number of qualifying Tier 1 media outlets.
- Home and visiting head coaches will again be available pre-game in designated areas accessible to all credentialed media members and outlets. The home head coach will be available 105 minutes prior to the game, the visiting head coach will be available 90 minutes prior to the game.

MEDIA SEATING & WORK SPACE

Media seating will be in sections 16 and 107 of Gainbridge Fieldhouse. Seating charts will be on the televisions in the Bill York Media Room; and seats will be designated with seat cards.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Upon arrival, please see a member of the Pacers' Basketball Communications staff for instructions on where to shoot. All requirements above apply to photographers.

Due to space limitations, priority will be given to those that have covered the Pacers on a regular basis in the past.

- Should we not be able to credential an outlet for a particular game, arrangements can be made to provide photos of that particular game.
- All photographers shooting from the floor must wear photo vests. These vests will be issued by Basketball Communications prior to each game and MUST be returned after the game.
- Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times.

For television stations planning to do live shots, please include in the 48-hour credential request, and on arrival you will be taken to a designated area for the live shot.

- If planning to shoot the game, 48 hours notice is required for planning purposes due to space limitations.

Pregame and postgame locker room access will be limited to Tier 1 media members only. Head coach Rick Carlisle and two players will be available in the Collins-Fuson Interview Room after home games and at the designated media space on the road.

PRINTING

All media notes and information will continue to be distributed accordingly, but very limited printed materials will be provided to media. Access to a digital media site that contains live game information and box scores, interviews, photos, notes and other pertinent game information will be shared by the basketball communications staff.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA POLICY

All international media (affiliations distrubted outside of the U.S.) requests are handled by the NBA International Public Relations Department.

Any international media member interested in covering an Indiana Pacers regular season game must first submit a request in writing to the NBA. Please do not contact the Pacers individually.

All credential requests must be received at lest three business days prior to the first games requested.

Requests may be FAXED to the attention of:

GAINBRIDGE FIELDHOUSE

More than just iconic architecture painted against the skyline of one of America's fastest-growing cities, Gainbridge Fieldhouse pulses with energy and invites us in to visit with the spirits from all those Where Were You When moments that wrap us up in true Hoosier Hospitality. It anchors the downtown and is a welcoming place for visitors and locals alike to relive some of the magical events that put Indianapolis on the map. Its history is the history of our city and state, of our rightful position as the cradle of basketball and our maturation into a cultural center in the Midwest. The Fieldhouse is certainly the best place in the NBA to watch a basketball game. That's undeniable as it is fitting, of course, since We Grow Basketball. But like its home city, it is so much more than the game we love.

While the distinct exterior design of the Fieldhouse is a quaint and appropriate homage to the fieldhouse gymnasiums that still pepper Indiana towns, the state-of-the-art facility has become a premier venue for more than 2 million guests attending 550 live performances, concerts, conventions, and games every year. This includes the national FFA convention, the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, rodeos, ice skating performances, high school athletics championships, and more. And unlike so many professional sports and performance venues, Gainbridge Fieldhouse prides itself on being a true community asset that belongs to all of us.

Open daily from dawn until dusk, Bicentennial Unity Plaza is an inspiring public space that marks a momentous milestone in the history of our beloved city! Located in the heart of downtown Indianapolis, this plaza will serve as a beacon of unity, commemorating the City's first 200 years while embracing the promise of a vibrant future.

The plaza will become a focal point for gatherings, offering a space where all residents and visitors will be greeted by captivating landscapes & art installations and, of course, a basketball court for some friendly competition that will serve as an ice rink in the winter.

ASCENSION ST. VINCENT CENTER
INDIANA PACERS PRACTICE FACILITY

In August 2017, Pacers Sports & Entertainment and St. Vincent unveiled the new Ascension St. Vincent Center, the Pacers' training facility and medical office building that will provide local residents and workers improved access to high-quality care. Groundbreaking took place in December of 2015.

St. Vincent, a member of Ascension, the nation's largest Catholic and not-for-profit health system, is a leader in medical excellence, including primary care, cardiovascular services and sports performance. The 20-hospital system secured the naming rights and on-site medical services for the five-story facility that was privately financed by PS&E.

The 130,000 square-foot Ascension St. Vincent Center is located on Delaware Street immediately east of Gainbridge Fieldhouse and adjacent to the Virginia Avenue Parking Garage. It is connected to Bankers Life Fieldhouse via a tunnel on the event level.

The partnership also includes the Ascension St. Vincent logo on the Pacers' practice jerseys. Ascension St. Vincent is also the exclusive health care provider of the Pacers.

For the Pacers and Mad Ants, the Ascension St. Vincent Center houses two NBA-regulation practice courts named in honor of franchise icons Bobby "Slick" Leonard and Donnie Walsh, as well as the most modern training and medical facilities required by professional sports teams. Pacers basketball staff and business operations also moved to the Center, allowing future re-purposing and modernization of current space in Gainbridge Fieldhouse.

The Ascension St. Vincent Center became the 20th stand-alone training facility built by an NBA team since 1999. Many of those facilities have partnered with local health organizations.

INDIANA FEVER - WNBA

In 1999, Pacers Sports & Entertainment announced the Indiana Fever would become the second team to play inside its new downtown Fieldhouse. As the Indiana Fever debuted as an expansion team in 2000, it did not take long for inaugural General Manager Kelly Krauskopf to build the team into one of the most successful in the WNBA.

The Fever have represented a model of consistency in the WNBA. Indiana made the WNBA playoffs in 12 consecutive seasons from 2005-16, which is the longest streak in WNBA history and the fourth-longest streak in major professional sports history. The Fever have reached the conference finals seven times, including the WNBA Finals in 2009, 2012 and 2015.

Led by All-Star forward Tamika Catchings, the Fever captured the team's first WNBA championship as Indiana defeated the Minnesota Lynx in four games during the 2012 WNBA Finals. The Fever's championship was the city's first pro basketball title since the Pacers won the ABA title in 1973. Catchings was enshrined into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on May 15, 2021, along with Kobe Bryant, Tim Duncan, Kevin Garnett, Eddie Sutton, Rudy Tomjanovich, Kim Mulkey, Barbara Stevens and Patrick Baumann.

Krauskopf, who departed the Fever for the Indiana Pacers for six years to become the NBA's first female Assistant General Manager, returned to the franchis's WNBA side in October 2024 to guide the Fever into a new era. Alongside COO and General Manager Amber Cox and Hall of Fame coach and current front office consultant Lin Dunn, the franchise is looking to capitalize on the momentum after the Fever smashed attendance and viewership records during back-to-back transcendent seasons in 2024 and 2025 in which the team made returns to the WNBA Playoffs

In consecutive seasons in 2023 and 2024, the Fever turned the No. 1 pick in the WNBA Draft into the league's Rookie of the Year. Aliyah Boston and Caitlyn Clark have quickly helped created the league's newest must-see squad and helped recreate the winning culture expected from Fever fans.

Former Fever Head Coach and Indiana basketball legend Stephanie White returned to the sidelines in Indiana in 2025. White, the Lebanon, Ind. native and national champion at Purdue, was an assistant coach during Indiana's championship run in 2012 before leading the Fever to their most recent trip to the WNBA Finals in her first season as head coach in 2015. She brings a successful resume full of postseason success back to Indiana for the new era of Fever basketball

Despite an injury-riddled campaign in 2025, the Fever posted one of the most memorable seasons in franchise history. Indiana fell just short of reaching the WNBA Finals for the fourth time in club history as they fell in overtime in a decisive Game 5 of the WNBA Semifinals against the eventual-champion Las Vegas Aces.

Guard Kelsey Mitchell, the former No. 2 pick in the WNBA Draft in 2018 by Krauskopf in her prior regime, earned her third All-Star appearance and first All-WNBA Team honor in 2015. Mitchell, Clark, Boston and a talented group of young and veteran Fever look to keep Indiana among the WNBA's elite for years to come.

NOBLESVILLE BOOM - NBA G LEAGUE

In September of 2015, the Fort Wayne Mad Ants of the NBA G League became the third entity in the Pacers Sports & Entertainment family.

With the acquisition of the franchise, which operated independently out of Fort Wayne, Ind. beginning in 2007, the Mad Ants became the 10th G League team to be wholly-owned by an NBA franchise. Today, 30 G League teams are singly-affiliated with NBA franchises.

In August 2025, Pacers Sports & Entertainment officially tipped off an exciting new era of G League basketball as the franchise opened a state-of-the-art arena in Noblesville, Ind., the nearby northeast Indianapolis suburb. While operating closely on a daily basis with the Pacers' basketball operations department, the Noblesville Boom will continue to practice at the Ascension St. Vincent Center while operating closely with Pacers coaches and front office executives; however beginning with the 2025-26 season, the Arena at Innovation Mile will play host to a full slate of the Boom's home games for the upcoming season.

Head Coach Tom Hankins returns to the sidelines in 2024-25 for his sixth season at the helm of the Boom. Hankins led the Mad Ants into the championship game of the NBA G League Winter Showcase in two of the last three seasons, as well as playoff berths after each regular season campaign.

Noblesville's roster will be highlighted by three players under two-way contracts with the Indiana Pacers in RayJ Dennis, Quenton Jackson and Taelon Peter, along with expected appearances from young players on the roster such as Pacers draft pick Kam Jones.

Ryan Grant, a veteran business executive in the NBA G League, joined the Pacers Sports & Entertainment staff in August 2025 to lead the Boom into their new era of basketball. Chris Taylor, a longtime employee within the Pacers basketball operations department, was promoted to the General Manager position in 2021 and will help shape the team's roster.

The Boom inherit a long history of success in the NBA G League. The Mad Ants became champions of the G League in 2014 and runners-up in 2015. Overall, the franchise has earned playoff berths 10 times in the team's history. Ron Howard was the league MVP in 2014 and Howard, Tony Mitchell (2014), Justin Anderson (2023) and Oscar Tshiebwe (2024) have all earned All-League First Team honors for the franchise in its 18-year history.

The official colors of Pacers Sports & Entertainment are Blue (PMS 282) and Gold (PMS 1235).

WHY THE PACERS?

When professional basketball came to Indianapolis in 1967, one of the key decisions would be what to call the new American Basketball Association franchise.

According to Indianapolis attorney Richard D. Tinkham, the nickname "Pacers" was decided on through a collective decision of the original investors. Tinkham, one of those investors, recalled that the nickname was a combination of the state's rich history with the harness racing pacers (investor Chuck Barnes was a horse racing enthusiast) and the pace car used for the running of the Indianapolis 500.

Tinkham said the "Pacers" decision was an easy one, but the real debate was whether the team should be called the Indiana Pacers or the Indianapolis Pacers. Since one of the original ideas for the team was to have it playing throughout the state with its base in Indianapolis, the official team name became the Indiana Pacers.

For a brief history on the Indiana Pacers prior to the team's NBA debut, refer to page 210.

INDIANA PACEMATES

Since the Indiana Pacers first hit the hardwood in 1967, the Indiana Pacemates have been right there with them! Originally known as the Marathon Scoreboard Girls and then the Paul Harris Pacerettes in the ABA, the squad presented fashion shows during selected timeouts and halftimes. After several years, the squad evolved into an entertainment entity of the franchise during the 1972-73 season and became known as the Indiana Pacemates. The Pacemates currently act as goodwill ambassadors to the community by making numerous appearances throughout the year for corporate, private, civic and charitable events on behalf of the Indiana Pacers.

The Pacemates' program continued into the 1976-77 season, when the Pacers entered the NBA. A dramatic new dimension was added to the Pacemates' program when they were heralded as the first professional dance/cheerleading squad in the NBA.

Creatively, the Pacemates merged the magic of dance and the excitement of cheerleading into a kaleidoscope of entertainment. So innovative and organized was the Pacemates' program that similar groups began to appear with other teams. Squads such as the Los Angeles Laker Girls, Chicago Luvabulls and the New Jersey Nets' Cheerleaders could now be found in NBA programs throughout the country. However, it was the Pacemates that were the trendsetters.

The Pacemates' excellent reputation for entertainment came to the attention of the NBA front office in New York City, which extended an invitation to the squad to perform at the NBA All-Star Game. This was the first time in NBA history that an invitation was extended to a professional cheerleading squad. The Pacemates continued to set the trend as they were also the very first NBA dance team to be invited to perform for U.S. and NATO troops stationed overseas on the Armed Forces Entertainment Tour in 2004 and 2005. In the summer of 2009, the Pacemates were invited to China by the NBA to participate in a 14-day tour with the Jam Van Tour and again in 2012 to China as featured performers for the Guangdong Mobile Tour. In 2013, they traveled to Taipei, Taiwan for NBA Cathay Youth Madness and the NBA 3x in Manila, Philippines and attend the NBA Global Games in both cities during the same season. Members of the Pacemates visited Regina, Saskatchewan in Canada for the NBA All-Star Challenge in 2015 and to Xi'an, China for the NBA Five Basketball Tournament in 2019. Most recently, the Indiana Pacemates supported the Pacers and performed in the inaugural NBA In-Season Tournament in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2023. They were also selected to perform at various activities for the 2024 NBA All-Star Games in Indianapolis.

As the Pacers continue to succeed, so does the Pacemates' program, as they continue their tradition of excellence in entertainment and commitment to the community for the 59th season.

PACERS HYPE CREW

The Pacers Hype Crew is a fan interactive group that engages fans on the concourses during pre-game activities and assists with executing in-game promotions at every Pacers home game. You can hear them on all levels of the arena throughout the games, helping to keep the energy high and enhance our fans' game-day experience. This co-ed group also performs high-energy routines at select games- sometimes with the Pacemates. You won't want to miss seeing them on the court this season.

HIGH OCTANE DRUMLINE

The Indiana Pacers have a musical group to entertain fans at all home games. The Indiana Pacers "High Octane" Drumline perform in and around Gainbridge Fieldhouse entertaining fans and adding a touch of a collegiate atmosphere to Pacers functions and game night festivities. The group practices twice a week in the fall and once a week during the NBA season. It features the talents of approximately 24 performers ages 16 and older with backgrounds in pageantry art performance such as marching band and drum corps The "High Octane" Drumline add yet another dimension to the already popular Pacers entertainment elements.

POWER PACK

The Pacers Power Pack have been entertaining Pacers fans since 1999. Fans from all over, enjoy watching their high flying, acrobatic, stunt dunking! They have traveled to China, India, Mexico, Philippines, Taiwan, Brazil and three NBA All-Star games to perform. The Pacers Power Pack love dunking with their dare devil leader, Boomer, at every Pacers home basketball game...but keep your eyes open, because you may see them flying around your area soon! Call (317) 917-2882 for more information.

BASKETBALL STAFF

KEVIN PRITCHARD
President of Basketball Operations

When Larry Bird stepped down in May, 2017 as President of Basketball Operations, he didn't have to look far for his replacement: across the office where Kevin Pritchard was sitting.

Pritchard, who enters his ninth season as President of Basketball Operations, took the necessary steps to his current position. He started as Director of Player Personnel, became General Manager in 2012 and later became the Pacers' Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations/General Manager.

"I have the utmost faith in Kevin taking over," said Pacers' owner Herb Simon said in 2017. "He has learned from a couple of great ones, Donnie Walsh and Larry, while with the Pacers. We all feel he will do a tremendous job."

"I want to thank Herb, Larry and Donnie (Walsh) for giving me the opportunity of a lifetime," said Pritchard. "As someone who grew up in Indiana (he was born in Bloomington), I've always felt the Pacers' pride. The goal is always going to be the same as it has been through Donnie and Larry: to make this a world-class organization."

It was Bird who originally brought Pritchard to the Pacers and he added, "I'm very happy Kevin is stepping in and glad another Hoosier is in line to take over this job. He has a lot of experience from his years as a GM and he's ready to step into a leading role. With us, he has had his own ideas on the draft, players, and has used this an opportunity to push his basketball abilities to the forefront. His role is no different than mine was. He makes all final decisions on all basketball-related matters. There can only be one voice and it will be his."

Prior to coming to the Pacers, Pritchard was the general manager of the Portland Trail Blazers from 2007-10 where he was instrumental in landing 2007 Rookie of the Year Brandon Roy and 2007 first team, All-Rookie member LaMarcus Aldridge. In his time with the Trail Blazers, Pritchard helped turn around a team that eventually posted its sixth-best record (54-28) in franchise history in 2008-09, a year that marked Portland's return to the playoffs for the first time in six seasons.

The 53-year-old Pritchard was born in Bloomington, Ind., and played collegiately at Kansas where he was a member of the Jayhawks' 1988 National Championship team. He played in the NBA with Golden State (drafted in the second round, 34th overall, by the Warriors), Boston, Philadelphia, Miami and Washington. He also played internationally in Italy, Spain and Germany.

After his playing career, Pritchard was the coach/general manager of the Kansas City Knights of the ABA, winning a championship in 2002. He has scouted for the San Antonio Spurs and became the Blazers' Director of Player Personnel in 2004. In the 2004-05 season, he served as the Blazers' interim coach for 27 games, then in 2006 became Portland's assistant general manager before taking over the GM position in 2007.

Kevin is married to Tatiana. He has two sons, K.J. and Lucas, two daughters, Kendall and Valentina, and a granddaughter, Ava.

CHAD BUCHANAN
General Manager

Chad Buchanan is in his ninth season with the Pacers as General Manager after taking the position in July 2017.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Buchanan was with the Charlotte Hornets as Assistant General Manager for three seasons. In that role, he took part in many aspects of the team's basketball operations including professional and collegiate scouting, draft preparations, player acquisitions and salary cap management. He has assumed many of those same duties as the Pacers' General Manager.

Before going to Charlotte Buchanan spent 10 seasons with the Trail Blazers, the last seven as Director of College Scouting. He also served as the team's Acting General Manager during the 2011-12 season, overseeing the 2011 NBA Draft, player transactions and free agency. During his time in Portland, Buchanan focused on all college and international scouting, while also managing the development of the scouting database, organizing pre-draft workouts and assisting with NBA player evaluation.

Prior to joining the Trail Blazers, Buchanan spent eight seasons in college basketball, serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Iowa from 1995-97 before becoming an assistant coach at Simpson College from 1997-2002. RICK CARLISLE
Head Coach

Seeking an established leader and winner to fill their coaching vacancy after the 2020-21 season, the Pacers turned to a familiar voice as they named Rick Carlisle as the team's head coach on June 30, 2021.

"I want to thank Herb Simon, Kevin (Pritchard), Chad (Buchanan) and the Pacers organization for having me back for a third time," said Carlise during his introductory press conference. "This has been a very special place for me and my family."

Carlisle has put together one of the most successful coaching careers in NBA history. He ranks second among active coaches in career victories and is poised to become the 11th coach in NBA history to earn 1,000 career head coaching wins during the 2025-26 season.

The Pacers saw a significant jump in 2023-24 - Carlisle's third season in his return to Indiana - as the team garnered early-season success - earning a spot in the NBA's inaugural In-Season Tournament championship game - before reacshing the Eastern Conference Finals in the postseason.

In 2024-25, the Pacers overcame an injury-plagued start to the season to post a 48-34 regular season record and earn the fourth seed in the Eastern Conference. Indiana put together a thrilling postseason run to reach the NBA Finals for the first time since 2000 before falling to the Oklahoma City Thunder in seven games during the championship series.

Under Carlisle's tutelage, Tyrese Haliburton recorded back-to-back All-NBA campaigns during the 2023-24 and 2024-25 seasons. The acquisition of Pascal Siakam during the 2023-24 season accelerated Indiana's team development. Siakam has flourished in his Pacers tenure, becoming an NBA All-Star for the third time in his career in 2024-25.

During Carlisle's first tenure as Indiana's head coach, the Pacers made postseason appearances in each of Carlisle's first three seasons (2003-06) as head coach while winning 18 playoff games over that span. Indiana reached the Eastern Conference Semifinals in 2004-05 before falling in six games to the eventual-Eastern Conference champion Detroit Pistons.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Pacers under head coach Larry Bird from 1997-2000. Carlisle helped lead the team to three straight Eastern Conference Finals appearances, including the franchise's first appearance in the NBA Finals in 2000.

Carlisle ranks third among active NBA head coaches in career coaching victories behind San Antonio's Gregg Popovich and Milwaukee's Doc Rivers. Over the course of the 2023-24 season, he became the Pacers' franchise leader in NBA coaching wins, surpassing the previous mark held by Frank Vogel (250). He is now one of four coaches to lead two different franchises in NBA coaching victories (Red Auerbach, Phil Jackson, Lenny Wilkens). Carlisle has also climbed into 12th place in NBA history in career victories, most recently passing Red Auerbach (938) with Indiana's win over Brooklyn April 1, 2024.

Carlisle has now led his teams to the playoffs 17 times in his 24 seasons and ranks 17th in NBA history with 71 playoff victories.

"Rick is a proven winner, a champion and will be a Hall of Fame coach," said Pacers President of Basketball Operations Kevin Pritchard. "He has demonstrated throughout his career an ability to build something with sustainable success. He has great respect for our franchise and our fans from his previous times here."

Carlisle began his head coaching career with Detroit in 2001-02. During his two-season tenure, the Pistons won 61 percent (100-64) of their games to go along with two Central Division championships and a trip to the 2003 Eastern Conference Finals. Following his first season, Carlisle earned the NBA's Coach of the Year award.

Including his two seasons with Detroit and first with Indiana in 2003-04, Carlisle became the first coach since Pat Riley to win 50 games and division championships in each of his first three seasons as a head coach. Carlisle completed 13 seasons as the head coach of the Dallas Mavericks from 2008-21. He became the winningest coach in Mavericks history in 2015 and finished with a 555-478 overall record (.537) in Dallas. He guided the Mavericks to the franchise's first world championship in 2011 while posting a 16-5 mark during the 2011 postseason. Overall, Carlisle led the Mavericks to the postseason nine times in his 13 seasons with the team. Also an NBA champion as a player with the Boston Celtics in 1986, Carlisle is one of only 14 individuals to win an NBA championship as both a player and a head coach.

Carlisle served as an ESPN studio analyst during the 2007-08 NBA season before taking the lead coaching role with the Mavericks. He also currently holds the role as president of the NBA Coaches Association.
Carlisle began his coaching career in 1989 as an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. In five seasons with the Nets, he had the opportunity to work under Hall of Fame coaches Bill Fitch and Chuck Daly. Carlisle then moved on to Portland, where he spent three seasons as an assistant under P.J. Carlesimo.

In 1984, Carlisle began his NBA career as the only rookie to earn a roster spot with the Boston Celtics. He spent three seasons in Boston and enjoyed his best year as a professional for the 1986 NBA champions. He played one year with the New York Knicks under head coach Rick Pitino before moving on to New Jersey, where he played briefly for Fitch before being offered an assistant coaching position with the franchise.

Collegiately, Carlisle played two years at the University of Maine before transferring to the University of Virginia, where he was co-captain of the Cavaliers' 1984 Final Four team.

NBA TERMINOLOGY

ACTIVE LIST

Each team is required to have no fewer than 12 and no more than 15 players on its Active List for each game. For the Regular Season, teams are required to have at least eight players who are dressed for and eligible and able to participate in each game. (During the playoffs, this number increases to nine.)

ROSTERS

For the regular season, each team is required to submit the names of its active players to the NBA's Basketball Operations Department no later than 6:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on the day before the opening day of the season. For the 2025-26 season, the date to submit rosters is October 20, 2025.

For the playoffs, each team must submit a list of its players eligible to compete in playoff games by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on the day following the end of the regular season. Because there is no Injured List for the playoffs, each playoff team must designate the 15 players eligible for the playoffs from all of its regular season lists (Active, Injured and Suspended).

10-DAY CONTRACTS

For the 2025-26 season, beginning on January 5, 2025, a team may sign a player to a 10-day contract. This procedure may be used only to replace a player assigned to the Injured List. No player may be signed to more than two 10-day contracts with the same team in any one season.

SALARY CAP

The Salary Cap for the 2025-26 season is $154.647 million per team. The tax level has been set at $187.895 million. The minimum team salary, which is set at 90% of the Salary Cap, is $139.182 million.

The First Apron Level is set at $195.945 million and the Second Aprol Levl is $207.824.

The non-taxpayer mid-level for this season is $14.104 million, the taxpayer mid-level is $5.685 million and the mid-level for a team with room under the Salary Cap is $8.781 million.

TRADE DEADLINE

The trade deadline is 3:00 p.m. (Eastern time) February 5, 2026. From that point until the end of the regular season, player additions must be made through the waiver procedure or by signing free agents.

TWO-WAY CONTRACTS

No Two-Way Player may be on the Active List for more than 50 games during the 2024-25 Regular Season. For Two-Way Players signed after the first day of the Regular Season, the 50-game limit will be reduced pro rata based on the portion of the Regular Season covered by the Two-Way Contract.

CONTRACT LENGTH

The maximum length of player contracts is five years (previously six years).

GUARANTEED CONTRACTS

For the 2025-26 season, on January 10, 2026, all player contracts become guaranteed for the remainder of the season.

DRUG TESTING

Players are subject to four random drug tests per season and penalties for use of performance-enhancing drugs have been increased.

PLAYER MISCONDUCT

Players suspended for more than 12 games for on-court misconduct will be able to challenge the suspension before a neutral arbitrator.

WAIVERS

Until the end of the season, clubs may claim waived players within 48 business hours after notice. Players waived at any other time, may be claimed within 10 days. If no team claims the waived player, he becomes a free agent. If more than one team claims a waived player, the one with the lesser record at that time claims the player. The cost for a waived player is $1,000, payable to the league.

MINIMUM AGE REQUIREMENT

The minimum age requirement has been increased from 18 to 19 years of age. United States players must be at least one year removed from high school AND 19 years of age (by the end of that calendar year) before entering the draft. International players must turn 19 during the calendar year of that draft.

HERB SIMON
OWNER • 1983-PRESENT

Herb Simon, together with his late brother Melvin, led Simon Property Group, Inc. to a leadership position within the industry which it continues to maintain today. Simon and Melvin purchased the Pacers in 1983 to ensure the team would stay in Indianapolis. Herbert Simon is Owner/CEO of Pacers Sports & Entertainment.

In October 2024, Simon was formally inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Simon, the longest-tenured owner in NBA history, was named a finalist in February 2024 under the "Contributors" category, which recognizes owners and executives who have been instrumental in helping grow basketball in the United States and across the globe.

MEL SIMON
OWNER • 1983-2009

In the fall of 2009, the Indiana Pacers retired a jersey to honor Melvin Simon, the team's late co-owner, who passed away Sept. 16, 2009. Along with his brother, Herb, the Simons bought the Pacers in 1983. But Melvin Simon's reach extended way beyond the Pacers. He was not only a leader in the business community but a visionary for his adopted hometown and one of Indiana's philanthropic giants. Pacers President of Basketball, Larry Bird, said, "He is a true legend to this city, not only for the visible things that everyone sees each day, but because he was a man who cared about people. He is one of this country's greatest success stories, a man who is a true example of the American Dream. As an owner of the Pacers, he was a joy to work for and to work with. But he wasn't only an owner, he was the biggest and best Pacers fan."

JIM MORRIS
PRESIDENT/VICE CHAIRMAN • 2007-2024

Jim Morris served as President and Vice Chairman of Pacers Sports & Entertainment from 2007 until his passing in July 2024. Prior to his tenure with Pacers Sports and Entertainment, Morris served in many distinguished civic roles over the course of his career, including chief of staff to Indianapolis Mayor Richard G. Lugar, president of Lilly Endowment, chairman and CEO for IWC Resources Corp. and Indianapolis Water Co., and executive director of the United Nations World Food Programme under the presidential cabinet. For nearly 60 years, Morris' career efforts were central to creating what is now a vibrant sports market in the Indianapolis community. His work with Mayor Lugar in the late 1960s and early 1970s where he assisted in the development Market Square Areana and launch the now-named IU-Indianapolis campus helped to stabilize downtown while laying the groundwork for future investments.

ABA HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

On Feb. 2, 1967, a franchise in the American Basketball Association was offered to a group of Indiana sportsmen and businessmen. That group was comprised of John DeVoe, a successful insurance man; Richard P. Tinkham, an attorney; Charles M. Barnes, Jr., President of Sports Headliners; Bob Collins, Sports Editor of the Indianapolis Star; L. Charles DeVoe, L. M. DeVoe Co.; Ron Woodward, Circle Securities; E.J. Bannon, a Lafayette banker; and George Lyn Treece, Burger Chef Systems.

The results of two feasibility studies conducted by the city indicated that the Indianapolis area could support professional basketball. Armed with this information, the group accepted the offer and professional basketball was "back home again in Indiana."

The corporation, Indiana Professional Sports, Inc., was formed to own and operate the new franchise and the corporation went into business with E.J. Bannon as its first President and John DeVoe as the Executive Vice President. Other members of the first board were: Robert Bowes II; L. Charles DeVoe; Richard Ebershoff; Norb Schaeffer; Richard Tinkham; George Lyn Treece; and J. Frederic Wiese.

On June 16, 1967 at a press conference, the Indiana franchise announced it would be known as the "Pacers" because the organization intended to set the "pace" in professional basketball.

Mike Storen was appointed General Manager; Bernie Lareau was named Trainer and Business Manager, while Larry Staverman, an assistant at the University of Notre Dame, was chosen as the Pacers' first coach.

The first player ever drafted by the Pacers was Jimmy Walker, a 6-3 guard from Providence, who was also the first player chosen in the NBA Draft that year. The first player signed by the Pacers was Roger Brown, a 6-5 forward, who was playing AAU ball in the Dayton, Ohio area.

Assisted by Bobby "Slick" Leonard and Clyde Lovellette, Coach Staverman held summer tryouts the week of June 19, 1967. During the week, the Pacers looked at nearly 50 players and attracted over 15,000 fans to the evening scrimmages that were opened to the public.

When the Pacers opened the 1967-68 season against the Kentucky Colonels on Oct. 14, 1967, an overflow crowd filled the Fairgrounds Coliseum. The Pacers, who won the game 117-95, had to turn fans away because of the overcrowding conditions. The Pacers finished their initial season with a 38-40 record. They were eliminated from the playoffs in three straight games by the Pittsburgh Pipers, the eventual league champion.

Despite a record below .500, the Pacers still led the ABA in attendance drawing 192,130 fans, for an average of almost 5,000 per night.

The 1968-69 season marked the beginning of Phase II for Indiana. After only nine games into the season, Leonard was named to replace Staverman as coach of the Pacers, and Indiana was on its way to the top.

That season, Indiana won the Eastern Division and made it to the ABA Championship Finals before losing to the Oakland Oaks, 4-1.

The next season, 1969-70, Indiana ran away from the ABA by posting a 59-25 record, won the Eastern Division crown again, and won their first ABA Championship by beating the Los Angeles Stars, 4-2.

In the 1970-71 season, Indiana moved to the Western Division, which they also won, marking the third straight year Leonard had led the Pacers to a division title. However, they were eliminated from the playoffs by the eventual champions, the Utah Stars, in a seven-game series. The final game of the series was played at the Coliseum in front of an overflow unannounced crowd.

In both 1972 and 1973, Indiana finished second in the Western Division, but was able to regroup to win the championship. In 1972, they overcame some internal problems and ousted the Utah Stars in a fantastic seven-game series, upsetting the Stars in the seventh game in Utah. Indiana captured its second ABA crown by beating the New York Nets, 4-2. In 1973, the Pacers breezed past the Denver Rockets and Utah into the Championships vs. the Kentucky Colonels. Indiana beat the Colonels for the title by winning the seventh game in Louisville in a series that saw the home team win only two of the seven games.

That was the Pacers' third championship in four years and it was the fourth time during the five seasons that Leonard coached the Pacers that they had made it to the finals.

During the 1973-74 season, the veteran Pacers struggled through the regular season, putting on a strong rush to grab second place from the San Antonio Spurs. In the playoffs, they defeated the Spurs in seven games, eventually losing to Utah. In the offseason, the Pacers traded 30 years of playing experience and began a rebuilding program for the future.

The 1974-75 season marked the beginning of another era for the Pacers. First, they moved into the beautiful Market Square Arena with its 17,000 seats. Also, in midseason, the Pacers encountered severe financial difficulties and went up for sale. A 10-man group, headed by W.D. Eason and Thomas Binford, formed Arena Sports, Inc., which purchased the club. The new group of owners was very concerned with keeping the Pacers in Indiana, continuing the winning tradition and had a long range goal of seeing the Pacers play in the National Basketball Association (NBA). They succeeded on all accounts.

The young, rebuilt team was the talk of the basketball world as they upset both San Antonio and Denver, the winningest team in pro ball, in the playoffs to advance to the '75 ABA Finals. But, the magic finally ran out, as they lost to Kentucky, 4-1.

In 1975-76, the Pacers ninth and final ABA campaign, the club finished 39-45, the first sub-.500 season since their inaugural season in 1967-68. However, the Pacers did make the playoffs for the ninth straight season, eventually losing to defending champion, Kentucky, 1-2, in the final seconds.

Following the 1975-76 season, Indiana became a member of the NBA.

The Pacers' success in the ABA has been noted with individual inductions into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. In 2012, Mel Daniels, a two-time ABA MVP, was selected by the ABA Committee. In 2013, Roger Brown joined his teammate and in 2014, Leonard was selected for the Hall; and in 2017 George McGinnis, the 1974-75 ABA MVP, was selected to the Hall.
